

New Program On WNTC Is Entitled Great Music of Yesterday and Today

A new program of serious music entitled "Great Music of Yesterday and Today" is being inaugurated by campus station WNTC.

"Great Music of Yesterday and Today" will be heard every Monday evening from 9:30-10:30 p. m. Students from the Crane Department of Music, in cooperation with Dr. Samuel Spurbeck of the Crane Department, will present music from various periods into which classical music has been divided. The four presentations to be presented, as released by the programming department of WNTC, are as follows:

WNTC, Announces Schedule For Spring

Sunday—
1:30-2:00 Previews of WNTC
2:00-2:30 Sammy Kaye's Sunday Serenade
2:30-3:00 Music by the Masters
3:30-4:00 Trends in Music
4:00-4:30 Sunday on Broadway
4:30-5:00 Proudly We Hail
5:00-7:00 Music On a Sunday Afternoon
7:00-11:00 Sunday Night Merry-Go-Round

Monday—
7:00-8:00 Club 640
8:00-8:15 Join the Navy
8:15-8:30 Campus News
8:30-9:00 Spinning the Blues
9:00-9:30 Miscellaneous Medley
9:30-10:30 Great Music of Yesterday and Today
10:30-11:00 Requestfully Yours
11:00-12:00 Music to Study By

Tuesday—
7:00-8:00 Club 640
8:00-8:15 Here's to Vets
8:15-8:30 Record Serenade
8:30-9:00 Dick Barret Show
9:00-9:30 Celebrity Time
9:30-10:00 Career Hour
10:00-11:00 Requestfully Yours
11:00-12:00 Music for Studying

Wednesday—
7:00-8:00 Club 640
8:00-8:15 Let's Go to Town
8:15-8:30 Campus News
8:30-9:00 Artistry in Rhythm
9:00-9:30 Strictly Dixie
9:30-10:00 The Cave
10:00-11:00 Requestfully Yours
11:00-12:00 Music to Study By

Thursday—
7:00-8:00 Club 640
8:00-8:15 Here's to Vets
8:15-8:30 Record Serenade
8:30-9:00 Dick Barret Show
9:00-9:30 Celebrity Time
9:30-10:00 Career Hour

(See Schedule Page 6)

ment of Music, in cooperation with Dr. Samuel Spurbeck of the Crane Department, will present music from various periods into which classical music has been divided. The four presentations to be presented, as released by the programming department of WNTC, are as follows:

April 16 BAROQUE PERIOD with Roberta Melius and Ruth Robinson

April 23 CLASSIC PERIOD with Marilyn Warner and Patricia Adams

April 30 ROMANTIC PERIOD with Cameron Rylance and Hannah Wilkins

May 7 MODERN PERIOD with Robert Renino and Dave Connor.

"Requestfully Yours" with Frank Parks will now be heard on Monday evenings at 10:30 instead of 10:00 p. m.